EDITOR'S ERROR!

In the July 1996 issue of 'Timber Talk', on page six, there is an error. I showed photocopies of the many woods from the Atlantic Canadian Coin Collectors' Rally held at the APNA Spring Show in May 1996. I have indicated there, that the Allan and Ruth MacDonald woods have a common reverse. This is not the case. If you look closely, at the pictures(here below), the "character" in the wooden boat, on the reverse of these two woods is actually different on each wood. I showed only one reverse in last month's issue, thinking they were both the same. Sorry for the mistake.

FREE WOOD OF THE MONTH

Stan Banner of Port Alberni, British Columbia has donated this month's free wood on behalf of the Alberni Valley Coin Club. This is a thirty-fifth anniversary wood issued in November 1995. The Alberni Valley Coin Club logo side is red and the large salmon fish side is blue in colour. More information regarding this wood can be found in the Nov. 1995 issue of Timber Talk (page 4).

Some of the woods distributed at the recent C.N.A. convention in Montreal are shown on this page. Any information available on these woods is included. I'm sure that to obtain most of these woods a SASE sent to the person issuing the wood , would in most cases be sufficient.

Richard and Aloma Blaylock of North Ogden, Utah issued two woods for the C.N.A. convention. They are similar only with different colours. One hundred were made with the green obverse. There were fifty made with the light blue obverse and these were distributed only at the CAWMC breakfast meeting.

The Blaylocks also distributed, at the breakfast meeting only, a wood announcing the birth of their grandchild. The footprint side of the wood was designed by the baby's mother.

Editor's Report From C.N.A. Convention:

I've just returned from a four day trip to Montreal, where I attended the Canadian Numismatic Association annual convention. Of course, as a collector of wooden money, I was mainly interested in securing wooden pieces that I could add to my collection but was also interested in seeing members of our hobby that I might not otherwise have a chance to see. I was very successfully able to do both, getting some woods from the large and very busy bourse floor at the convention and also getting pieces from the other wood collectors attending the convention from all parts of Canada and across the United States. "Woodies" were well represented in Montreal and most were able to stay and attend the CAWMC breakfast meeting held on Sun. July 28th.

Our president, Lou Vesh, conducted the meeting. He very appropriately recognized three of our deceased member over this past year; they being Howard Harris, Aubrey Leslie and Jim Deluney, all of whom have contributed much to this hobby in their time. Also recognized, and in attendance at this breakfast meeting, was Mr. Walter Loudon. Walter is one of our most faithful members and contributors to our hobby. He is also one of our three honorary life members of CAWMC. Walter, who lives in Mascouche Heights, just outside Montreal, is ninety-seven and one half years of age. He made a monetary donation to our CAWMC association.

Literary awards, which recognize written contributions submitted by our members to this Timber Talk newsletter, were announced. Winners for this past year were Lou Vesh and Al Munro. Both of these members have been instrumental in keeping your editor well stocked with interesting written material for this newsletter bulletin. This certainly helps to make my task easier.

Mr. Ron Zelk, representing the Southern Ontario Chapter of CAWMC, presented to CAWMC a cheque for $500.00 which represents part of the profits received from the draw held in conjunction with the recent O.N.A. convention. The draw was organized by member, Mr. John Regitko.

President Lou presented, also to CAWMC, a cheque for $201.00 which represents the proceeds received from the sale of the "Bird Series" of woods which Lou initiated some years back. There are now eight birds, beautifully represented on woods, all made by Lou. Many of these woods are still available from Lou at $3.00 a pair. Check out his article in July's Timber Talk for more detail.

The CAWMC meeting ended with a lively donation auction of 44 lots. Many very good and scarce woods appeared. The CAWMC treasury benefitted by $37.20 from the auction.

Members are now looking forward to again getting together, a year from now, in Moncton, New Brunswick, at the 1997 C.N.A. convention.

Please note that printed on page five is the financial statement, for the past year, submitted by our secretary/treasurer Al Munro.
